WEEK 5: HOW THE STORY ENDS...

JEREMY BELL, TEACHING PASTOR

JOB 38:1-7 NIV

1 Then the Lord spoke to Job out of the storm. He said: 2 “Who is this that obscures my plans with words without knowledge? 3 Brace yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall answer me. 4 Where were you when I laid the earth’s foundation? Tell me, if you understand. 5 Who marked of its dimensions? Surely you know! Who stretched a measuring line across it? 6 On what were its footings set or who laid its cornerstone - 7 while the morning stars sang together and all the angels shouted for joy?”

JOB 42:1-6, 12-13, 16-17 NIV

1 Then Job replied to the Lord: “I know that you can do all things; no purpose of yours can be thwarted. 2 You asked, ‘Who is this that obscures my plans without knowledge?’ Surely I spoke of things I did not understand, things too wonderful for me to know. 4 You said, ‘Listen now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you shall answer me.’ 5 My ears had heard of you but now my eyes have seen you. 6 Therefore I despise myself and repent in dust and ashes.”

12 The Lord blessed the latter part of Job’s life more than the former part. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen and a thousand donkeys. 13 And he also had seven sons and three daughters.

16 After this, Job lived a hundred and forty years; he saw his children and their children to the fourth generation. 17 And so Job died, an old man and full of years.

GOING DEEPER

(SOME IDEAS TO PUT IT INTO PRACTICE)

QUESTIONS TO PONDER:

During times of tragedy and pain we find ourselves asking why, demanding an answer from God. How can we discover who God is during these times?

When we don't understand why something has happened, can we trust that God is good and great?

Is it difficult to believe that God is working all together for good? Do you trust Him to work it all out "in the end"?

A VERSE TO MEMORIZE:

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:28 NIV

TAKE A STEP:

Make time in your schedule to experience God through His creation. Take a walk through the woods or stand by a lake, and listen to the natural world around you. Allow it to show you the awe of God.
